

SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS
and the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists are pleased to offer:
ETHICAL MYTHS AND MYSTERIES

Have you ever wondered where conventional wisdom comes from - like giving clients three names for a referral, making "suicide contracts, etc.?" This workshop looks at some common risk management and ethical beliefs and examines the rationale behind them. Clinical vignettes will be presented with input encouraged.

Linda K. Knauss, Ph.D., ABPP is a Professor and Director of Internship Training at Widener University's Institute for Graduate Clinical Psychology. She is the Chair of the APA's Ethics Committee and has taught ethics courses at several area colleges. Dr. Knauss has also authored several book chapters and journal articles on the topic of ethics. She is the recipient of the 2002 Ethics Educators Award presented by the Pennsylvania Psychological Association's Ethics Committee, and the recipient of the 2004 Pennsylvania Psychological Association Distinguished Service Award.

The tour will be before the workshop.

FEES:

This workshop is free for members of SOS, PSCP, and staff at the host school. There is a $50.00 admission fee for others. CE Ethics credits and Act 48 credits are $30.00 each. Payment must be made online, by check, or money order made out to SOS. NO CASH PLEASE.

TO REGISTER: please go to the website (www.specialistsofschools.org), click on the upcoming workshop, answer the questions, click the "Reserve Your Spot by Registering Online" button, then click the PayPal button to pay in advance. This is strongly recommended, as it will decrease a lot of waiting time and confusion at the registration table.

CE CREDITS:

This session is co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists (PSCP) and Specialists of Schools. PSCP is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. PSCP maintains responsibility for the program and its content. This program provides 3 hours of CE Ethics credits for Licensed Psychologists, Social Workers, Licensed Professional Counselors, and Marriage and Family Therapist.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- identify common beliefs that are not based on overarching ethical principles
- describe the methodology to be used to identify false or unhelpful ethical or risk management principles
- utilize ethical decision making skills

DIRECTIONS: Baldwin is at 701 Montgomery Avenue in Bryn Mawr – on the corner of Morris and Montgomery Avenues. When you go in the main gates, it is the first building where the workshop will be. Park wherever you can, go up the steps and go into the assembly room on the right. Ring the bell if the door is locked; the receptionist will let you in.
