

SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS
and
the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists are pleased to offer:
THE GRIEVING SCHOOL AGED CHILD

This workshop will focus on the grieving school aged child. The presenter will discuss reactions to significant loss at different ages and stages of development and appropriate interventions for teachers and staff to make with grieving children. Plenty of time will be allowed for discussion of experiences of participants in their classrooms with children who have experienced loss and the issues which arose in these cases.

Corinne Masur, Psy.D. Corinne Masur, Psy. D. is a Clinical Psychologist and Psychoanalyst who has worked with children for over 35 years. She is in private practice in Center City, Philadelphia and Exton. She co-directs a small parent-child center, teaches at the Psychoanalytic Center of Philadelphia and writes and speaks on the topic of bereavement and mortality. Corinne also has a website for parents: www.thoughtfulparenting.org.

CE CREDITS:

This session is co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists (PSCP) and Specialists of Schools. PSCP is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. PSCP maintains responsibility for the program and its content. This program provides 2 hours of CE credits for Licensed Psychologists, Social Workers, Licensed Professional Counselors, and Marriage and Family Therapist.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- describe two or more differences between reactions to loss in the pre-school child, the elementary school child and the high school child
- list three or more interventions a teacher can make with a child who has had a significant loss in the last two months
- recite at least two pathological variants in the mourning process

DIRECTIONS: The directions will be emailed with the handouts.
