

SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS

and

the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists are pleased to offer:

ETHICAL ISSUES IN THE SCHOOLS

This workshop will address issues that are unique to the practice of school psychology including students' and parents' right to privacy, confidentiality, and informed consent; record keeping; culturally sensitive services to diverse clientele; individual and group assessment; as well as counseling and therapeutic interventions. Participants are invited to discuss ethical dilemmas from their own experience.

Linda K. Knauss, Ph.D., is a Professor and Director of Internship Training at Widener University's Institute for Graduate Clinical Psychology. She is chair of the Pennsylvania Psychological Association's Ethics Committee, a member of the American Psychological Association's Ethics Committee, and has served as Co-Chair of the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists' Ethics Committee. Dr. Knauss has taught courses in ethics at Widener University, Immaculata College, and the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. She has authored several book chapters and journal articles on ethics and has taught many continuing education workshops on a variety of ethical issues. Dr. Knauss was the recipient of the 2002 Ethics Educators Award presented by the Pennsylvania Psychological Association's Ethics Committee and the recipient of the 2004 Pennsylvania Psychological Association Distinguished Service Award.

CE CREDITS:

This session is co-sponsored by the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists (PSCP) and Specialists of Schools. PSCP is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer Continuing Education (CE) for psychologists. PSCP maintains responsibility for the program and its content. This program provides 3 hours of CE credits for licensed Psychologists, Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapist.

This workshop fulfills Ethics requirements for psychologists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- identify the responsibilities of school psychologists to parents and students
- balance the best interests of the child with the needs of the school system
- anticipate and resolve ethical challenges in the schools

DIRECTIONS: There are three parking areas, two are visible from Meetinghouse Road, one follows the stonewall around to a raised level – that is where the direct entrance is. The workshop will be held in the library, which is on the right in the hallway, when you have stepped inside.
