

SPECIALISTS OF SCHOOLS

and

the Philadelphia Society of Clinical Psychologists are pleased to offer

WHAT'S THE RIGHT THING TO DO? AN APPROACH TO ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING INTEGRATING MUSSAR AND MINDFULNESS WITH A SYSTEMS PERSPECTIVE

Mussar is an approach to ethical character development emerging from Jewish tradition. Mindfulness refers to a moment-to-moment, nonjudgmental, full sensory awareness emerging from Eastern meditation traditions. This experiential workshop will use a systems perspective to integrate these traditions to develop approaches to ethical decision-making in organizational, educational and clinical practice.

Date: Friday, March 8, 2013
Place: William Penn Charter School
Timmons House
3850 The Oak Road
Philadelphia, PA 19129
(215) 844-3460
www.penncharter.org
Time: 11:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M.
Penn Charter will be serving a light lunch

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- Describe situations that pose ethical dilemmas and separate facts from feelings in these dilemmas as a first step toward ethical decision-making
- Use Mindfulness techniques to integrate comprehensive and apprehensive information in responses to ethical dilemmas
- Apply Mussar protocols to specific ethical situations in order to determine an ethical response
- Utilize functional sub-grouping as a systems method for integrating differences in a discussion

OUR PRESENTERS:

Irene McHenry, Ph.D., is Executive Director of the Friends Council on Education, president of the board of the Council for American Private Education and on the Board of Managers for Haverford College. She does consulting and organizational development work with schools nationwide and is a regular contributor to publications on education. Dr. McHenry was a founding faculty member of Fielding Graduate University's doctoral program in Educational Leadership and Change, founding Head of Delaware Valley Friends School, and a co-founder of Greenwood Friends School. She holds a doctorate in human and organizational development from Fielding Graduate University and a BA from Susquehanna University.

Beulah Trey, Ph.D., is co-founder of Vector Group Consulting, an international leadership and organizational development firm focused on strengthening clients' resilience through strategic planning, employee engagement, team development and executive coaching. Dr. Trey co-founded the Mussar Leadership Programs to promote ethical and moral character development. Her doctorate in professional psychology is from the University of Pennsylvania and her BA from Swarthmore College.

CE CREDITS:

Please note that the three Continuing Education (CE) credits offered by this workshop have been approved by the American Psychological Association to satisfy ethics requirements for licensure for psychologists, social workers and marriage and family therapists. PSCP maintains responsibility for the program and its content.

FEES:

This workshop is free for members of SOS and staff at Penn Charter. There is a $50.00 admission fee for others. CE credits and Act 48 credits are $30.00. Payment must be by check or money order made out to SOS. No cash please.

TO REGISTER: Please e-mail Tocky Collins at TockyLC@aol.com.

DIRECTIONS: Please remember this workshop is to be held at the Timmons House on 3850 The Oak Road, just off School House Lane. Do not go to the main entrance on School House Lane. Parking is in the lot in front of the Timmons House and on The Oak Road.